Monthly virtual meetings

ACRL MD meets virtually on the 3rd Friday of each month, at 11 am. Access Blackboard Collaborate at: <http://bit.ly/ACRLMDvirtual> (You'll need speakers, microphone optional but recommended).

Professional Development Programming

Our division typically holds 2 in-person, original, professional development events per year. Save the date for our upcoming fall program on November 6, 2017 featuring Lauren Pressley, ACRL vice-president/president-elect, as keynote speaker.

Journal Club

Every other month, we cut our virtual business meeting short to discuss two articles from the most recent issue of ACRL's College and Research Libraries. Our next journal club is September 21, 11:30 am-12:30 pm. Watch your email for announcements and to vote on which articles we discuss.

Joint Conference of the Maryland and Delaware Library Associations

ACRL MD coordinates relevant programming for our membership at this annual professional development event. Submit a program proposal, volunteer to review submissions, attend the conference, or do all 3! The next conference will take place May 2-4, 2018 in Cambridge, MD!

Social Events

Duckpin bowling has been a smash hit for 2 years running, so look out for announcements later this year for another winter social event that's family friendly!
